

Selected designs

The following figure shows in the upper panel the optimisation score over the different generations. Below are the expected signals of the three best designs from different families. Next to each design is the covariance matrix between the regressors, and the diagonalmatrix with the eigenvalues of the design matrix.

